

EMPLOYED NON-EU CITIZENS' REGISTRATIONS

AFTER ARRIVAL IN NORTH SAVO

	STEPS	COMMENTS
<input type="checkbox"/>	To work in Finland, you usually will need a residence permit. The correct residence permit application for you depends on what kind of work you will do and if you already have an agreement with an employer. bit.ly/migri_apply You have to apply before coming to Finland for a residence permit at online service EnterFinland.fi. bit.ly/finlandworkpermit
<input type="checkbox"/>	Registration at the DVV (Digital and Population Data Services Agency) of the municipality of residence and of the permanent address and possibility to apply for a Finnish personal identification number. dvv.fi/en/foreigner-registration . Locations: bit.ly/dvvservicepoints
<input type="checkbox"/>	Application for a tax card and/or an individual tax number, and possibility to apply for a Finnish personal identification number. bit.ly/verotaxcard If you come to Finland temporarily but stay for longer than 6 months, you are treated as a resident taxpayer. Locations: bit.ly/verotaxoffices
<input type="checkbox"/>	Open a bank account in Finland to handle your finances, like receiving of your work payment. www.infofinland.fi When opening a bank account (banks: bit.ly/finlandbankaccounts , you need a passport, identity card for foreign citizens or some other official identity card.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Registration to the Finnish Social System, Kela and application for a Kela card at your local Kela service point: the Kela card is needed for identifying when applying for health services, picking up medicine, etc. bit.ly/kelacard Locations: kela.fi/service-point-locator
<input type="checkbox"/>	Application for an identity card at the Police station. bit.ly/polisi_identitycard The identity card is usually valid for five years at a time. You can be issued with an identity card if you are a foreign citizen permanently resident in Finland. Locations: bit.ly/polisi_northsavo
NEED MORE DETAILED INFORMATION AND SUPPORT? You can find more detailed information and request for support on www.TalentSpring.fi, the free online community for all things international in North Savo.		SCAN THE QR-CODE FOR THE FULL ROAD MAP 