

Survey results Berlin

19 participants, 11 full answers, 8 drop-outs running time: 28.10.-29.11.2022

employees´ number of companies surveyed

60
38
30
9
5
0

professional sectors of companies surveyed

Hospitality	2
Provision of other economic services	1
Information and communication	1
Manufacturing sector	1

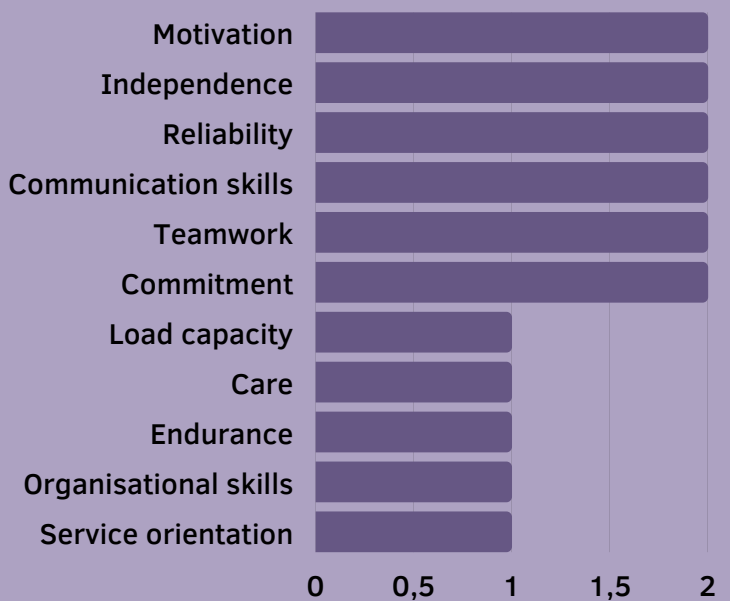

Are low-skilled migrant women already employed?

Are there fields of work in your company where low-skilled migrant women can be employed?

What skills/competences/knowledge are needed in the mentioned fields of work?

Can you as a company offer training/ further education/ language classes?

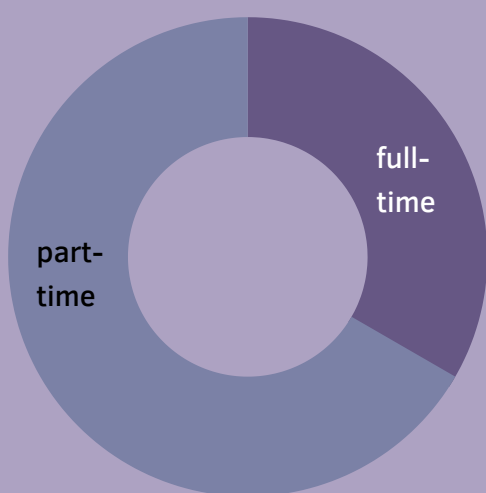

How?

- Through network partners who offer these courses.

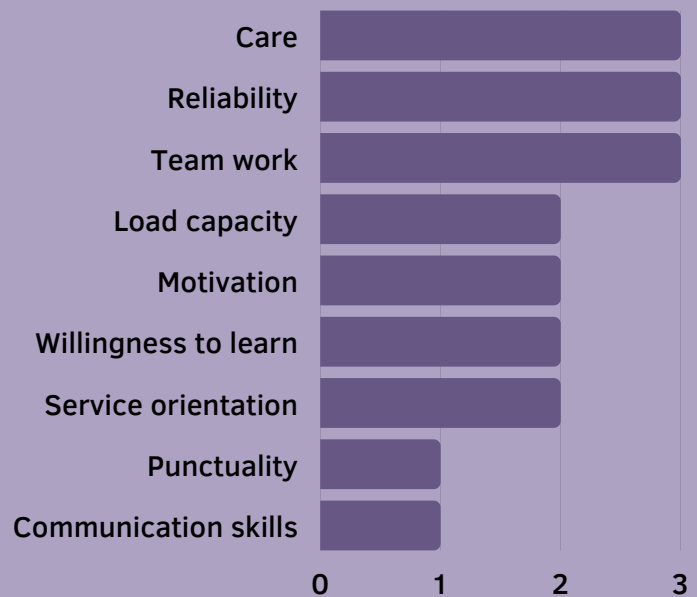

In which fields of work in your company are low-skilled migrant women employed?

- trainee cook, Hotel management assistant, Front desk clerk, Housekeeping, Service
- Housekeeping
- Service
- Kitchen
- Cleaning/facility services
- Kitchen helper
- Janitor services

Are they employed full-time, part-time or on a marginal basis?

What skills/competences/knowledge are needed in the mentioned fields of work?

What needs - related to the field of work - do you see among your employees, especially low-skilled migrant women?

- Language classes
- Support with visits to the authorities and applications
- Exam preparation for trainees
- School support for trainees

Are there equal career opportunities in your company?

Are you interested in needs-based, low-threshold support services?

What needs-oriented, low-threshold support services are you interested in?

